VISITOR GUIDE

GASLAMP QUARTER

WELCOME!

The Gaslamp Quarter is excited to welcome the competing teams, alumni, and fans of the National University Holiday Bowl and the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl! We are absolutely thrilled to host such wonderful athletic programs and their dedicated supporters. The district will be pulling out all the stops for our guests, and so many of our businesses have come up with incredible deals, specials, and promotions JUST FOR YOU!

As San Diego's premier shopping, dining, and nightlife destination, the Gaslamp Quarter is home to the region's most diverse restaurants, retailers, and entertainment venues. We hope this personalized visitor guide will help make your Gaslamp Quarter experience the best it can be. You will find a ton of helpful information on the following pages, and if you would like to know more you may always visit our website at www.gaslamp.org. Again, welcome to the Gaslamp Quarter and enjoy your stay!

Will you be here over Christmas or extending your trip until New Year's Eve? Be sure to visit gaslamp.org/events/holidays for all the amazing celebrations throughout the district! From swanky rooftop soirees to a heart-pounding dueling piano performance, there is something sure to please every member of the family. But make your plans early, many of the events sell out well in advance!

GASLAMP QUARTER

The Gaslamp Quarter National Historic District is located in the heart of Downtown San Diego, California. Stretching from Broadway to Harbor Drive along Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Avenues, the Gaslamp Quarter truly is in the center of it all. The Quarter plays host to many events and festivals, including Mardi Gras, the Taste of Gaslamp, the Fifth Avenue Auto Showcase, the Poinsettia Bowl Gaslamp March and more.

The area is best known for stunning examples of Victorian Architecture and for being a fabulous entertainment destination. There are currently more than 100 diverse restaurants, nightclubs, lounges and live music venues. We have another 70 shops, boutiques and personal service providers. There are more than 20 hotels directly adjacent to the neighborhood and we are directly across the street from the San Diego Convention Center and Petco Park, home to the San Diego Padres.

Learn more by visiting www.gaslamp.org!

BOWL GAMES

We all know the real reason you're here--to watch the big game! The Gaslamp Quarter is served by the Green Line trolley, which means you're only a short ride away from Qualcomm Stadium. But for those of us not lucky enough to have scored tickets, don't fret, you're in good hands! We love football and have plenty of places to catch the action. The hard part? Choosing which awesome place to go to!

Find your spot by visiting www.gaslamp.org/game-day-guide/ where you'll see a full list of restaurants and bars showing the games. Many of our venues offer great deals and specials during football games. You'll also want to check out www.gaslamp.org/march for promotions exclusively for this year's bowl games. Some businesses have even claimed a team, so check with your school's athletic department for more information on designated venues for alumni or superfans. Our sites are updated daily, so check back often for the latest and greatest specials!

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23 - 6:30PM

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27 - 5:00PM

Can't get enough football? Neither can we.

The Gaslamp Quarter is the go-to place for everything football this season. We'll be showing every game, so you won't miss a moment of the incredible playoff action.

EVENTS

POINSETTIA BOWL GASLAMP MARCH

Sunday, December 21, 2014

Free, Open to the Public

The Gaslamp Quarter Association is teaming up with the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl to bring the Carrier-Johnson + Culture Poinsettia Bowl Gaslamp March to Downtown San Diego. Marching bands and spirit squads representing the Navy Midshipmen and the San Diego State University Aztecs will parade along Fifth Avenue in the Gaslamp Quarter, performing everyone's favorite holiday classics. The event comes to a crescendo at Fifth Avenue and Market Street for a heart-pounding battle of the bands.

carrierjohnson + CULTURE

Make sure you arrive in plenty of time to get your viewing spot!

Gaslamp March Schedule

SUNDAY DECEMBER 21ST!

GETTING HERE

TRANSIT

You can ride the San Diego Bus or Trolley to the Gaslamp Quarter. The Trolley runs from the Mexican border, South Bay, East County, Old Town and Mission Valley. Ride the Green Line to the Gaslamp Quarter Station at the south end of Fifth Avenue or get off at the 5th Avenue Station on the Orange and Blue Lines and walk one block south on C Street. Buses take a variety of routes.

San Diego Bus & Trolley - Maps & Timetables:

www.sdmts.com

Park & Ride

San Diego Transit system provides many great locations for you to park your car and ride into downtown via bus or trolley. Check their website for specifics.

BY CAR

From I-5 South

Drive past the airport toward the downtown San Diego skyline. Take the Front Street/Civic Center exit. Continue down Front Street twelve blocks to Market St and turn left (east). The intersection of 5th and Market is the center of the Gaslamp Quarter.

From I-5 North

In Downtown San Diego, take the 6th Ave. exit. Go left (south) on 6th Ave. In nine blocks you will cross Broadway to enter the Gaslamp Quarter at it's northern end.

From Highway 94 West

The highway ends and becomes F Street in Downtown San Diego. Continue west down F Street twelve blocks to enter the Gaslamp Quarter at Sixth Ave from the east.

From Highway 163 South

Drive south through Balboa Park and the highway becomes 10th Ave. Continue south on 10th Ave six blocks to F Street. Turn right (west) on F Street and go four blocks to enter the Gaslamp at 6th Ave at it's northern end.

PARKING

On street parking spots are limited but inexpensive. 2014 rates are $1.25 per hour. They all accept coins and some also accept credit cards. Currently parking meters are enforced from 10:00am to 8:00pm Monday - Saturday. There is no enforcement on Sundays, New Year's Day, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, President's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

You can also find reasonable parking rates within walking distance to the show at the Park-It-On-Market or 6th & K Parkade parking structures:
